

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH—HERE COMES EVERYBODY

This popular way of describing the universality of our Church is a theme of today’s readings. The prophet Isaiah tells of God’s servant who will be the “light of the nations.” It will not be enough for this servant only to bring back the survivors of Israel’s dispersion and captivity. God’s salvation must reach to the ends of the earth.

Saint Paul writes to a local church of mainly Gentiles and presumably former sinners of all kinds in Corinth. He greets them and tells them that they are to take their place with “saints everywhere” in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Gospel reading from John tells of Jesus’ commissioning by the Father in the Holy Spirit to bring salvation to all, to take away the sins of the world. This Chosen One has come to baptize the world in God’s Spirit. Everybody.

As you hear these words, consider your own task to bring the good news of salvation to everyone you will meet in the coming days, weeks, years.

Men's Bible Study

There is a basic social divide between those for whom life is an accrual of fresh experience and knowledge, and those for whom maturity is a process of mental atrophy. It has been said that to know the Bible is to know Jesus Christ. Our Monday morning Men's Bible study sincerely wants to know Jesus Christ better by studying the upcoming Sunday scriptures in depth. Our lives are spiritually richer today because we take the time to know Jesus through His Gospels and through those He has inspired to write about His message. This is a free gift for all those who wish to grow spiritually.

Come join us! No prior knowledge of scriptures is necessary. God will not disappoint; God's grace abounds for those who study His scriptures. Get to know Jesus better, come join us after the 630 AM. Mass in the hall every Monday morning. Please call Bob Novielli 714-556-8658 for further information.

All boys and girls ages 10 to 14 are invited to participate in the local level competition for 2005 Knights of Columbus Free Throw Championship, Sunday, Jan 23, 1:00 PM-3:00 PM in the Holy Spirit Parish Hall.
